
TESSI WELCOMES IVAN SCHOUKER AND PACO HAUSER WITHIN « TESSI SWITZERLAND ADVISORY BOARD »

Tessi, a leading player in Business Process Services, presents a comprehensive and modular range of services in Europe and Latin America which combines consultancy, integration, outsourced services, marketing services, contact centers and software development capabilities. Our vision of Business Process Services is customer-centric. We therefore constantly combine services and technology with the single aim of streamlining end-consumers' journeys while optimizing related processes and allocated resources within our client's organizations.

*«Our ambition in Switzerland is built upon teams of experts in enterprise information management, whose culture and experience are our main assets for processing and protecting our clients' most sensitive data» says Jean-Luc Vecchio, Chief Executive Officer - Tessi Switzerland.

In order to translate this ambition into the most appropriate strategy, fueled by a deep knowledge of local specificities, we invited Ivan Schouker and Paco Hauser to join forces within our Tessi Switzerland Advisory Board.

Ivan Schouker partners with investment firms, boards, executive teams and entrepreneurs on harnessing transformation and growth challenges in financial services and technology. His contributions as board director, advisor, or interim executive build on over 30 years of experience, including 15 as CEO, leading global businesses. His skills and knowledge, also shared as university lecturer and author, focus on strategic change, innovation, outsourcing partnerships, and collaborative leadership capabilities.

Paco Hauser is an independent senior advisor and board member in the Management Consulting, Fintech, Software and Financial Services industry. He has a broad experience as partner and executive in consulting firms, building up startups and managing large scale international organisations. His domain expertise includes, strategy definition and execution, process design, international sales and account management, complex program delivery, digital transformation, Business Process Outsourcing, post-merger integration and M&A.

*«We are very honored they accepted to help Tessi shape the future of its clients in the country, leveraging our 4 key group values: client-centricity, operational excellence, trust and even more importantly audacity. We wish Ivan and Paco a lot of success with Tessi teams» outlines Jean-Luc Vecchio.
